- ◆ You will receive a notice from the WFN ARB detailing the time, date and location of your hearing

Frequently Asked Questions

What does the WFN ARB do?

The WFN ARB will listen and determine the assessment outcome based on evidence brought forward at your hearing.

What does MPAC do?

MPAC is contracted by Wasauksing First Nation to provide property assessments on Parry Island, in accordance with WFN property taxation and assessment laws. MPAC will respond to assessment appeals related to valuation, classification, errors or omissions in the assessment or Property Assessment Notice.

Can the WFN ARB lower my property taxes?

No, the WFN ARB can only confirm or reduce your assessment which may result in lower property taxes. WFN is responsible for setting your tax rate and collecting property taxes. Please contact Craig Brown at ced@wasauksing.ca or (705) 746-2531 or visit www.wasauksing.ca for more information.

Is the administration fee refundable?

The administration fee is not refundable.

Who bears the burden of proof in an appeal?

The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

I have misplaced my Property Assessment Notice. What should I do?

If you have misplaced your Property Assessment Notice, please contact MPAC at wasauksing@mpac.ca or 1 877 487-5448.

How do I contact the WFN ARB?

Once the WFN ARB is established, contact information will be provided on www.wasauksing.ca. If you require immediate assistance, please contact the WFN Administration office (705) 746-2531.

Do you have accessibility needs?

If you have accessibility needs, please let our representatives know how we can best assist you.

How will MPAC use my information?

The information on the Notice of Appeal form is collected by MPAC on behalf of WFN under Section 30 of the Wasauksing First Nation Property Assessment Law, 2018. It will be used to provide property assessment services. If you have any questions concerning this collection, please contact the Manager, Valuation and Customer Relations, MPAC, by phone 1 877 487-5448 or email wasauksing@mpac.ca.
