The Wasauksing First Nation-Health Department is seeking an innovative, highly motivated and energetic team player for the position of Care-Coordinator-Registered Nurse. As a member of a progressive, interdisciplinary team you will have the opportunity to impact the health of individuals, families and the community through community care and chronic disease management. You will be a valued member of the primary health-care team in the Wasauksing First Nation and will be strategically placed to make a difference for our community population across its lifespan.

The Wasauksing First Nation-Health Department has recently been awarded primary health care funding for an Indigenous Interdisciplinary Primary Care Team, and are restructuring and enhancing programs and services.

Applicant(s) must possess current certificate of Registration with the Registered Nurses Association of Ontario (RNAO); and be a member in good standing with the College of Nurses of Ontario; have current certification in CPR-AED/First Aid and be academically prepared at the baccalaureate level with/without specialized certification in a clinical field. Experience in primary care; other subspecialties; excellent communication skills; well organized and received previous training in the delivery of culturally safe programming are considered assets. The registered nurse must have proven leadership ability and strong interpersonal skills and be willing to work flexible hours; provide an acceptable Criminal Records Check and Vulnerable Sector Check-Level 3; proof of a minimum class "G" driver's license; have access to a reliable vehicle and carry appropriate insurance to transport clients and be able to travel.

If you are interested in pursuing this exciting opportunity, please send your resumé, covering letter and three (3) references to:
